Let's Talk:

Monday, November 6 at 12:00pm- 2:00pm (More dates through December 4, 2023)

Virtual Event sponsored by University Counseling Services Meet with Counseling Services Shannon Stuart-Maver who specializes in working with graduate/professional, LGBTQIA+, trans/nonbinary, and multi-racial/multi-ethnic students, at the Knight Law Center (Room 220F) or click here.

Let's Talk is a service that provides easy access to free, informal, and confidential one-on-one consultation with a Counseling Services staff member. Let's Talk is especially helpful for students who:

- Have a specific concern and would like to consult with someone about it.
- Would like on-the-spot consultation rather than ongoing counseling.
- Would like to consult with a CS staff member about what actual therapy looks like.
- Would like to meet with one of our CS identity-based specialists.
- Have a concern about a friend or family member and would like some ideas about what to do.

Funding & Support

Professional Development Scholarship:

Deadline December 1, 2023

Funded by the Division of Graduate Studies and, in part, by the Gary E. Smith Foundation, this award is designed to support outstanding graduate students pursuing activities that would enhance their skills, knowledge, and abilities beyond their academic coursework and research, preparing them for post-graduation careers and increasing their overall employability and success in their chosen fields. Apply today!

Free Confidential HIV Testing:

Thursday November 9, 1:00pm – 5:00pm in EMU 02

HIV Alliance and LGBTSS have partnered up to provide free HIV, Hep C, and Syphilis testing and needle exchange. Email lgbtess@uoregon.edu with questions.

GE Onboarding Checklist & Workload Allocation Form:

GEs and supervisors may use these resources to orient and onboard GEs to their work resources and discuss workload tasks and expectations. Click here for more information.
