

Division of Graduate Studies

Graduate Student Newsletter - February 22, 2024

Dear graduate students,

There's nothing more we love than to celebrate UO graduate students' hard work, creativity, and skill. Many of you have had your work featured in publications, on screens, and in other storytelling and performance platforms. In this newsletter, you'll find news that recognizes some of that work, as well as exciting event opportunities and resources.

Sincerely,
Division of Graduate Studies

Events

The Academia-Adjacent Job Hunt for Grad Students

Friday, February 23 from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. on Zoom

Have you considered a career in academia or in a related field? Join this workshop to brainstorm and strategize ways to articulate your transferable skills while leveraging your existing networks. Offered by the Division of Graduate Studies and presented by the University Career Center.

Disabled and Neurodivergent Graduate Student Hot Breakfast

Monday, March 4 from 9:00 to 10:00 a.m. in Susan Campbell Hall, Rm 111, RSVP by Feb. 25

Neurodivergent and disabled graduate students are invited to enjoy a quiet and stress-free breakfast in the Graduate Studies Lounge. Full hot breakfast served and sponsored by the Division of Graduate Studies and the Accessible Education Center.

DisOrient Asian American Film Festival of Oregon

Live: March 8 to March 10

Virtual: March 11 to March 17

Tickets are on sale now for DisOrient, a grassroots, community-centered festival that explores the rich spectrum of Asian American, Native Hawaiian, and Pacific Islander voices and stories through independent film to broaden the narrative of who is American.

Volunteers needed who can provide four or more hours of support; access to all films offered in gratitude.

Unable to attend the festival? Stay tuned for details about our upcoming gradCONNECT event on March 14.

Social Media

Follow us on Instagram

Connect with us on LinkedIn

Grad Flock in the News

UO researchers use electrochemistry to decarbonize iron production

Grad Flock Publication: Introducing restorative practices into high schools' multi-tiered systems of support: successes and challenges

GE Opportunities

Korean Popular Culture and Transnationalism

Apply by February 19

Program Assistant and Digital Humanities Research Assistant

Apply by February 29

Funding & Support

Division of Graduate Studies Scholarships

Applications open March 1

Fund your dissertation and thesis research, conference travel, professional development opportunities, and more.

Education Northwest Scholarship

Applications due March 31

This annual scholarship (up to $5,000) is awarded to undergraduate and graduate students who have an interest in health and family related matters, particularly in health preservation and enhancement, health education, nutrition, or family health and well-being. Learn about eligibility and apply for these 2024-25 funds.

Duck Nest

Located in the University Health Services building

Visit this space that serves as a resource for self-care and life balance by providing peer-led mental, physical, and sexual well-being programming, as well as community connection and support.

Come into the Duck Nest space to sit and relax, drink tea, create an aromatherapy packet, feel the warmth of the “happy lights”, or even rest in the reset room.

Data Science GE Position

Apply by March 9

Research

Development Services

Funding Newsletters

Need funding for a research pursuit? Keep an eye out for the RDS Funding Opportunities Newsletter, distributed weekly.

1219 University of Oregon, Eugene OR 97403-1219

P: 541-346-5129 | E: graduatestudies@uoregon.edu

You are being sent this message based on your affiliation with the University of Oregon.

Share this email:

This email was sent to .

To continue receiving our emails, please add us to your address book.

Unsubscribe

Having trouble viewing this email? View this email online.

Subscribe to our email list.