- On the same Dashboard tab, you can locate the UO ID at the top. The UO ID may not show if the student submitted their application within the last three days. If this is the case, insert N/A into the nomination form.

The screenshot shows the Slate dashboard interface. At the top, there is a blue header with the 'slate' logo and several navigation icons. Below the header, a navigation bar contains tabs: 'Dashboard', 'Timeline', 'Unknown Term, Un...', 'Fall 2023, Nonpr...', 'Profile', and 'Materials'. The 'Dashboard' tab is selected, displaying 'Dashboard - Person Record'. A yellow box highlights the 'UO ID: 951' followed by a redacted area. A purple arrow points to this area with the text '← 4 UO ID will be here if available'. Below this, the 'Biographic' section shows 'Female', 'Born [redacted] age 30', and 'Citizen of United States'.

Option 2 – for Admissions – Reader Access

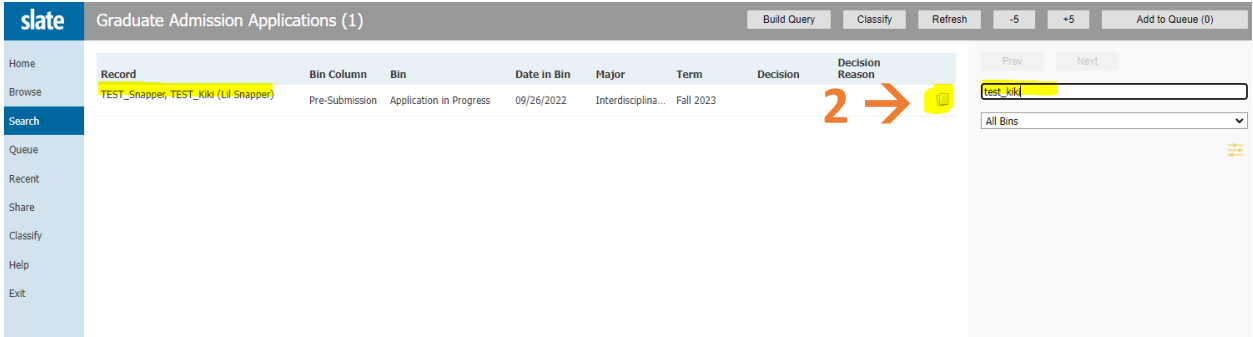

Access GPA via the Slate Reader. This option will work for anyone with “Reader” access or “Admissions – Program Staff” access to the program that the student has applied for.

- Log into Slate here. Click on the “Search” tab. On this page you’ll see the applications you have access to. Type the candidate’s name in the search bar.
