

Dear McDerBern,

On behalf of the Community and Regional Planning, MCRP program and the Division of Graduate Studies, welcome to the University of Oregon! We are very excited for your arrival.

To help you prepare for this next stage in your educational journey, we recommend previewing the full arrival process on our International Student Portal.

This portal includes helpful information on traveling with family, a glossary of common terms you'll read frequently at the UO, a checklist, and more. We'll also be sending you a handful of emails that include important reminders and information on setting up your life in Eugene or Portland.

First Steps

- Submit your official transcripts
- Claim your Duck ID
- Enroll in Duo
- Set up your UO email
- Submit the Personal Information & Financial Verification form to start the visa process
- Know the tuition and fees for your program
- Review page 8 of the International Student Arrival Handbook as you begin the search for housing. Start familiarizing yourself with the area around campus and plan to respond quickly
- Optional – Temporary homestay

Planning for Families

- Arriving with a spouse, partner or child
- Inquire about the dependent visa process
- Reserve a spot on the waitlist if you will need childcare

It's about to get very busy but take a moment to celebrate and thank those who have helped you along the way!

We are here to help you along the way. Please contact your program directly for support -or- view this list of contacts for various types of questions.

We cannot wait to meet you!
